Progressive Dinner

Everett Normanna, Everett Eagles, Everett Elks and Club 170 are planning a progressive dinner on Saturday, March 24. The fun begins at the Eagles from 4-5:30 pm for appetizers. Participants will then travel to Normanna for the salad course from 5-6:30 pm. Next up is the Elks from 6-7:30 pm for the entree. Finally, ticket holders will enjoy homemade desserts at Club 170 from 7-8:30 pm. followed by dancing. All food is donated and prepared by club members. Tickets are available for sale for $25. each beginning Sun. Feb. 5. A limit of 100 tickets will be sold so buy your tickets early. This is a fundraiser for the Fallen Heroes Project to purchase banners of Washington State military members recently killed in battle. These banners will be shared by all 4 clubs and used in various parades and events to honor our fallen heroes. Progressive Dinner ticket sellers are Sharon Skurlock at the Elks, JoAnn Molver at Normanna, (tickets available in the Viking Lounge) John Stickles at Club 170 and Annie Hall at the Eagles. A 47 passenger bus is also available for an additional $15. per seat on a first paid basis. Contact Annie Hall to pay and reserve your spot. The bus will begin at the Eagles, leaving there at 5pm to go to Normanna, then on to the Elks and finally Club 170. It will return to the Eagles at 11:30.

This event promises to be great fun!
